

Lowden's Man Takes Lead in Senate Race

Correction in Chicago Returns Takes 5,000 Votes From Smith and Puts McKinley in Front by 3,382

Returns Come in Slowly

Thompson Candidate Still Ahead for Governorship Nomination as Republican

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—With a correction in Chicago returns on yesterday's primary, taking 5,000 votes away from Frank L. Smith, William B. McKinley, candidate backed by Governor Lowden, took the lead in the Republican Senatorial race by 3,382 on returns from 4,973 precincts out of 5,737 in Illinois. Including 2,807 outside of Cook County. Their corrected totals in the 4,973 precincts were McKinley 299,424 and Smith 296,042.

With less than a thousand of the 5,737 precincts of the state unreported, returns for the Republican gubernatorial nomination gave John G. Oglesby 293,042 and Len Small 311,825. Oglesby is backed by Governor Lowden and Small by Thompson.

On the Democratic side, 2,853 precincts gave former Senator James Hamilton Lewis, 81,865, and Barratt O'Hara, 16,114.

In the Democratic Senatorial side, 2,155 precincts gave Robert E. Burke, 48,820, and Peter A. Waller, 45,802. Failure of election officials in 368 Chicago precincts to turn in their unofficial tally sheets has made it impossible to complete the count here before the official canvass.

Joseph G. Cannon, former Speaker of the national House of Representatives, is leading for renomination in the 18th District.

Final unofficial returns on national Representatives from districts in Chicago indicate the renomination of Martin P. Madden, Republican, with 12,044 votes, with James A. Gordon, as his Democratic opponent, in the 1st District.

James J. Ledy appears to have won the Republican nomination in the 2d District.

In the 4th District Representative John W. Rainey, Democrat, and John Kolombewski, Republican, are the probable nominees.

Gallagher Falls Renomination Representative Thomas Gallagher apparently was defeated for renomination on the Democratic ticket in the 8th District by Stanley Henry Kunz, whose vote, according to the unofficial tabulation, was 7,058. Gallagher's was 5,813. Dan Parroli is the probable Republican nominee.

Fred A. Britten was renominated on the Republican ticket in the 9th District. He received 12,000 votes more than his opponent, John A. Peterson.

For representatives-at-large 2,859 precincts of the 5,737 in Illinois, including 1,625 Chicago precincts, gave the Republican side: Brown, 72,958; Day, 78,446; Mason, 173,494; Yates, 92,533.

On the Democratic side 1,851 precincts, of which all except 226 were from Chicago, gave: Baltz, 99,812; Murphy, 35,119; Schneider, 39,186.

Returns in the various down-state Congressional districts in which there were contests follow:

Tenth (Republican). 186 precincts out of 320 gave Chindblom, 12,657; July, 10,041; Cook, 12,823; Johnson, 1,084; Collins, 972.

Eleventh (Republican). 107 precincts out of 190 gave Copley, 20,421; McCarthy, 10,565.

Fourteenth (Republican). 25 out of 124 precincts gave Graham 2,844; Cleveland, 302.

Sixteenth (Republican). 100 out of 214 precincts gave Ireland 6,370; Lynch, 2,854.

Seventeenth (Republican). 54 out of 185 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Buy Your Camera

—and photographic supplies where you can select from the largest stock at right prices.

WILLOUGHBY
Cameras—Supplies
110 West 32d St. Opp. Gimbel's

Harding Plans To Visit West Are Abandoned

Word From California That He Is Not Needed There and Maine Results Reasons; Will Make 4 Trips

From a Staff Correspondent

MARION, Sept. 16.—All plans for a Pacific Coast trip for Senator Harding have been cancelled. This was announced positively today after a long-distance telephone conversation between the candidate here and Senator Harry New, chairman of the Republican speakers' bureau at Chicago. Senator Harding, it was said, would not even go as far west as Denver.

Senator New telephoned that arrangements have been perfected for the first of a series of speaking trips to be made by Senator Harding, which will be a "border line state" tour. The candidate will leave Marion the night of September 26, and will speak at the armory in Baltimore the night of September 27. He will speak at Wheeling, W. Va., the night of September 28, in Ashland, Ky., the night of September 29, and will return to Marion, September 30.

Reasons for Abandonment

The Maine election result and the assurance of Governor Stephens of California that the candidate's presence was not required on the Coast are understood here to be the chief reasons for the abandonment of the western trip plan. In discussing this project last week, Senator Harding said that if he did go West, he would go into every state where there was a Senatorial election.

Senator New said today that it would be impossible to announce at present the arrangements for three other trips that the nominee will make. Special cars will be provided for the Senator's party, but most of the movements will be by regular trains. Part of the Minnesota trip was made aboard a special train.

Senator Harding issued a statement today commenting on the importance of a nation-wide annual observance of the anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States. Tomorrow is the 133rd anniversary of the Constitution. Mr. Harding declared the Constitution is the "ever-standing proclamation of the right of the people to speak as the sovereign power of the nation." Delegations are coming to the front porch to-morrow from every county in Ohio, and the candidate will deliver a Constitution Day speech.

An analysis of the strategy of the Democratic campaign was made here today by James E. Garfield, formerly Secretary of the Interior, who was a guest at Senator Harding's home. The Democratic plan, according to Mr. Garfield, is to concentrate on carrying the big cities of boss-ridden Northern states through control of the worst civic elements.

"So long as the Democrats play politics with loaded dice," said Mr. Garfield, "starting every campaign with the 135 electoral votes of the solid South, and only 150 more needed to elect, the country must understand that its first business is to prevent control in that interest."

Governor Cox's sole hope, Mr. Garfield said, is in holding first the South and then adding to it the electoral votes of New York, controlled by Murphy and Tammany; of New Jersey, controlled by James Nugent, who at San Francisco cast twenty-eight wet votes for Governor Cox, and of Ohio, where Governor Cox has built in eight years what Mr. Garfield terms a Tammany of his own.

Every wet influence recognized Governor Cox as the wet candidate," he Garfield said. "It is unnecessary for him to declare himself on the subject. It was unnecessary for the party platform to declare itself. The fine freemasonry of booze and bribery has been marked for its own. It recognizes him as its blood brother."

Sees Cox as Wet Candidate "Governor Cox will not have to say anything about wet and dry. He is free to talk uplift and moral reform; the felt merely wink the other eye. Governor Cox was nominated because of the astute convention leadership of Edmund H. Moore, of Youngstown, Ohio. Mr. Moore's political reputation prior to the San Francisco convention was based on the fact that he had managed several local option elections at Youngstown for the wets, and earned big fees by polling the vote that kept the community wet. His game at San Francisco was the same and he won. He kept the Democratic party wet."

"Every Northern state in which this plan must depend contains a number of large cities in which the Democratic bosses believe they can control the vicious and corruptible element. They hope that their political machines, plus the candidate's wetness, will make it possible for them to sweep New York City, to make immense gains in the 'hot' cities of New York and to carry New York's electoral vote. They are already at work in the lower wards of Chicago, and of the industrial cities of Ohio, Indiana and New Jersey. While Governor Cox talks reform and progress to the 'best people,' the Tammanites, the Murphys, the Taggartes, the Brennans, the Nugents and the rest of them will be delivering the goods."

$90,000 Bonds in Street

Bonds valued at almost $90,000 were picked up after the explosion yesterday as they fluttered on the glass-strewn pavement between the Morgan offices and the Assay Office. They were identified as part of a $100,000 lot which Thomas M. Jerray, a messenger for the brokerage firm of Johnson & Wood, 115 Broadway, was carrying.

A search for his body was undertaken at once. It was discovered in the Morgan, where it was identified by a scar on the arm by James H. Hanley Jr., a messenger for the same firm.

Drys Announce Candidate List They Will Fight

Anti-Saloon League Will Oppose All Who Are Not Recorded as Favorable to a Rigid Enforcement

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Officials of the Anti-Saloon League in conference here today made public a partial list of candidates for Congress against whom they will wage battle because of the candidate's position on prohibition.

Wayne E. Wheeler, general counsel of the league, in announcing the list, declared the league policy to be that every candidate not recorded as favorable to rigid enforcement would be fought "to the finish."

Thomas Taggart, Democrat, who is opposing Senator Watson, Republican, in Indiana, was among those named. Mr. Wheeler declared it was "imperative" to defeat Taggart and reflect Watson.

To Support Willis, of Ohio Former Governor Willis of Ohio, Republican, is to have the support of the drys, according to Mr. Wheeler, who said the dry forces anticipated a real fight in Ohio in order to maintain their strength in the Senate.

Representative Brooks, of the 1st Pennsylvania District, also will be opposed by the dry workers. Chairman Porter of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, who comes from the 29th Pittsburgh Pennsylvania District, is now being attacked by the dry forces of his district. Mr. Wheeler told the conference that they had hopes of defeating him.

Mr. Wheeler said the incumbents in the 25th and 28th Pennsylvania and the 5th and 11th Ohio districts were satisfactory to the league and that it was supporting their campaigns. Two districts in West Virginia, the 1st and 2d, provide another battleground for the dry workers. The two members of the House from those districts are dry, and their opponents both are running on platforms of beer and light wines. Mr. Wheeler said the league proposes that such candidates shall not "dry" open the door which already has been closed and locked.

Mr. Wheeler said fights also would have to be made in the 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th districts in Indiana.

S. M. Nicholson, Richmond, Ind., a national organizer for the league, declared that if the league desired to avoid "the hottest fight in its history in 1920" it must retain its present dry majority in Congress this year.

The wets claim they will add twenty-six to their strength in the House, Mr. Nicholson said. He added, however, that the results of primaries thus far did not bear out their optimism.

Members of the committee appointed to draft a resolution of warning to Federal judges, demanding that they rigidly employ the penal provisions of the enforcement law, announced today that the resolution would be one of warning to all officials of the government having to do with prohibition enforcement.

I. W. W. Resents Plot Charge

Too Busy to Mix in Bomb Affair, Official Says

Secretary J. H. Byers of the New York defense committee of the I. W. W. and persons identified with some labor organizations resented last night the suggestion that New York radicals or extremists were to blame for the explosion.

"The police," said Secretary Byers, "are liable to frame up all kinds of things in an effort to connect some labor organization with a mix of this kind. We are too busy to mix in with such a thing as a Wall Street bomb plot. We sincerely regret that so many were killed and injured."

"The I. W. W. does not advocate the destruction of innocent people. Our purpose is only to educate the people and not to teach the use of dynamite."

Guard at Morgan Home

15 Police Stationed Around His Madison Avenue Residence

Thirty detectives and fifteen plain clothes men from the West Thirtieth Street station were placed on guard last night around the home of J. P. Morgan, on Madison Avenue.

The detectives were stationed in doorways, on house tops and along the street. They were instructed to stop pedestrians and automobiles which gave the slightest reason for suspicion. It was said the guard would be maintained all night.

The detectives and plainclothes men were working under Captain Henry McQueeney, of the West Thirtieth Street station.

It seems unbelievable that we can turn out in these days a made-to-measure Suit at $50 that we would proudly sew the Haas label on!

But it's true, just the same.

We have come across so many men of taste and refinement who feel that to pay more than $50 for a Suit is an extravagance that we have decided to make a $50 Special that these men will take pride in wearing—as much pride as we take in making it!

Come in and see for yourself the wide range of quality fabrics from which you may choose!

(Other fabrics shown—from $45 to $90)

72 Chambers St.

One door west of Broadway

105 Nassau St.

One door north of Ann St.

11 Cortlandt St.

(Also Washington, D. C.—1811 Pennsylvania Ave.)

HAAS & CO.

ESTABLISHED 1922

Man Tailors

dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was nominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was dominated for Lieutenant Governor; Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, for Secretary of State; Emil Mazzano, of Hartford, for Treasurer, and Albert P. Walsh, of Danbury, for Comptroller. The convention was marred by many disorderly scenes, but was without a contest.

Mrs. Welch, the first woman ever named on the state ticket of a major party in Connecticut, was nominated by Mrs. Martin L. Caine, of Naugatuck. Mrs. Caine was cheered as the first woman to make a nominating speech at an important political convention in the state.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 16.

Rollin U. Tyler, of Haddam, for many years a member of the state committee, was nominated for Governor and Augustine Longenecker, of Hartford, retiring Representative in Congress, nominated for United States Senator by the Connecticut Democratic convention here this afternoon.

Ernest O. Wagner, of Salisbury, was

Schuyler Leads by 2,326 In Colorado Senate Race

DENVER, Sept. 16.—Returns from Tuesday's primary, compiled by the Denver Times to-day, included 1,126 out of 1,532 precincts in the state, and gave Karl G. Schuyler, of this city, a lead of 2,326 over Samuel D. Nicholson.

On the Democratic side, 2,853 precincts gave John G. Oglesby 293,042 and Len Small 311,825. Oglesby is backed by Governor Lowden and Small by Thompson.

On the Democratic side, 2,155 precincts gave Robert E. Burke, 48,820, and Peter A. Waller, 45,802. Failure of election officials in 368 Chicago precincts to turn in their unofficial tally sheets has made it impossible to complete the count here before the official canvass.

Joseph G. Cannon, former Speaker of the national House of Representatives, is leading for renomination in the 18th District.

Final unofficial returns on national Representatives from districts in Chicago indicate the renomination of Martin P. Madden, Republican, with 12,044 votes, with James A. Gordon, as his Democratic opponent, in the 1st District.

James J. Ledy appears to have won the Republican nomination in the 2d District.

In the 4th District Representative John W. Rainey, Democrat, and John Kolombewski, Republican, are the probable nominees.

Gallagher Falls Renomination Representative Thomas Gallagher apparently was defeated for renomination on the Democratic ticket in the 8th District by Stanley Henry Kunz, whose vote, according to the unofficial tabulation, was 7,058. Gallagher's was 5,813. Dan Parroli is the probable Republican nominee.

Fred A. Britten was renominated on the Republican ticket in the 9th District. He received 12,000 votes more than his opponent, John A. Peterson.

For representatives-at-large 2,859 precincts of the 5,737 in Illinois, including 1,625 Chicago precincts, gave the Republican side: Brown, 72,958; Day, 78,446; Mason, 173,494; Yates, 92,533.

On the Democratic side 1,851 precincts, of which all except 226 were from Chicago, gave: Baltz, 99,812; Murphy, 35,119; Schneider, 39,186.

Returns in the various down-state Congressional districts in which there were contests follow:

Tenth (Republican). 186 precincts out of 320 gave Chindblom, 12,657; July, 10,041; Cook, 12,823; Johnson, 1,084; Collins, 972.

Eleventh (Republican). 107 precincts out of 190 gave Copley, 20,421; McCarthy, 10,565.

Fourteenth (Republican). 25 out of 124 precincts gave Graham 2,844; Cleveland, 302.

Sixteenth (Republican). 100 out of 214 precincts gave Ireland 6,370; Lynch, 2,854.

Seventeenth (Republican). 54 out of 185 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.

Eighteenth (Republican). 90 out of 124 precincts gave Funk 1,850; Fort, 2,096.